

Gene Byrnes Says:—"Here's the Music—Write Your Own Words."

The man who never made a mistake hasn't been born, but the man who thinks he has never made a mistake is with us often.

Even the fact that they have made a lot of money doesn't make some people good company.

SPIRITUAL TRUTH

"Divine a bit do I believe the messages these medium are after getting from the dead," declared Dugan. "Ye can't tell'n whether they're true or not."

"More fool ye. Ye can and I can prove it," contradicted Monahan. "By mistake I was reported killed entirely in the war, and one day me sister went to a medium who told her I was wishin' I was back on earth. And at that very time I was on a transport in a high sea, d'ye mind!"—American Legion Weekly.

TOO LATE

Blissful for some years had gone the race that kills, only it didn't kill him but merely reformed him. Then he joined the church and rose so high in its councils that he was sent to one of the big cities as delegate to a convention.

"How was it?" asked a friend when he returned.
"The convention? Oh, all right," answered Bliggins. "But that town! Some town! If I'd only been a delegate to something there before I got converted."—American Legion Weekly

GUILTY

A youth once loved a modern miss; well versed in law was she. She charged him when he stole a kiss with petty larceny.
A moment he was quite abashed and then he squeezed her hand.
"You're wrong, quite wrong, dear," he replied. "Not petty. That was grand."

WEEKLY MARKETGRAM

(U. S. Bureau of Market)

Fruits and Vegetables.

Potatoes 10c-15c per 100 pounds northern shipping stations, closing 90c to $1.00. Chicago carlot market up 5c-10 at $1.10-$1.20. New York Round Whites held at $1.40-$1.50 bulk.

Carlot shipments week ended March 29: Potatoes, 2,167 cars; boxed apples, 295; barreled apples, 555; cabbage, 694; celery, 329; lettuce, 411; onions, 231; sweet potatoes, 250; strawberries, 257. Shipments week ended March 22: potatoes, 3,235 cars; boxed apples, 378; barreled apples, 694; cabbage, 523; celery, 397; lettuce, 521; onions, 350; sweet potatoes, 264; strawberries, 234.

Grain.

Market unsettled and prices fluctuated rapidly within a narrow range the past week.

Sentiment mostly bearish but there was buying on the breaks. Favorable crop reports, lack of export demand, reports of damage to growing crops by freezing weather and pit conditions were the principal factors influencing prices.

On the 30th all grain had very heavy undertone. Offerings of corn to arrive showed fair increase; corn products industries out of cash market.

Wheat crop reports favorable and indicate little or no damage by recent freeze on the 30th; 600,000 bushels of wheat sold for export at Gulf, but general demand slow and Italy out of market for season.

In Chicago cash market No. 2 Red winter wheat 14½c-14¾c over Chicago May; No. 2 Hard, same premium; No. 3, mixed corn, 5¼c-6c under May; No. 3 yellow 4c-5½c under.

For the week Chicago May wheat down 1½c at $1.39½; May corn 2½c at 61¾c. Minneapolis May wheat down 2c at $1.34½.

Kansas City May 3c at $1.32. Winnipeg, May ¾c at $1.76. Minneapolis flour demand dull; Kansas City milling demand good; export demand dull; No. 2 hard wheat 16c over Kansas City May.

Dairy Products.

Butter markets unsettled during the week. A tendency to recover was followed by sharp breaks and while there is momentarily somewhat firm feeling and prices have advanced again there is no assurance that market will hold. Closing prices, 92 score: New York 46c; Chicago, 44½c; Philadelphia, 47½c; Boston, 47c.

Hay.

Hay receipts light. Buyers are not alarmed and buying sparingly. Market quiet, upper grades selling well, low grades weak. Bulk of hay shipped south and southeast from Kansas City three weeks at destinations refused. Choice hay with tagged weights at premium in Cincinnati; straw up $2 that market. Chicago reports stocks good; $20 offered for clover-mixed free from grasses; fair demand for southwest prairie at $18.50; southeastern markets dull; supplies ample. Shipping demand generally light. Quoted No. 1 timothy $24 Cincinnati; $24 Chicago; $27 Memphis $19 Minneapolis; $25 Philadelphia; $31 New York; No. 2 timothy: $22 Cincinnati; $20.50 Chicago; $25 Memphis; $17 Minneapolis; $24 Philadelphia; $28.50 New York; No. 1 alfalfa: $21 Cincinnati; $27 Memphis; $21 Minneapolis; $20 Kansas City; No. 1 prairie: $15.50 Minneapolis; $14 Kansas City.

Feed.

Prices lower, particularly for wheat feeds though fewer distress sales noted and western offerings less heavy. Market dull and irregular demand very moderate. Trade not showing any interest in future shipment offerings. Quoted: Bran $21; middlings $20; flour middlings $26, Chicago. Thirty-six per cent cotton seed meal: $24 Memphis; $28.50 Cincinnati; 43 per cent cotton seed meal $32.50 Chicago. No. 1 alfalfa meal: $22 St. Louis; white hominy feed: $23 St. Louis; linseed meal, $40 Buffalo; $39.50 Minneapolis; bran: $18 Minneapolis.

Livestock and Meats.

Prices of practically all classes of livestock at Chicago declined the past week. Hogs ranged from 50c-75c lower; beef steers lost 25c-40c; butcher cows and heifers generally 25c; feeder steers 50c-60c; veal calves 50c per 100 pounds; fat lambs 50c-$1.00; feeding lambs steady to a shade higher; fat ewes up 25c.

March 30 Chicago prices: hogs, bulk of sales, $8.60-$9.75; medium and good beef steers, $8-$9.65; butcher cows and heifers, $4.75-$9.25; feeder steers, $7.25-$8.75; light and medium weight veal calves $7-$9.50; fat lambs, $7.50-$10; feeding lambs, $7.50-$9.25; yearlings, $7-$9; fat ewes, $5-$6.75.

Eastern wholesale fresh meat markets: Beef weak; veal $1 lower Boston; weak elsewhere; lamb steady at $10.00; weak to $1 lower elsewhere. Mutton steady; pork $1 lower New York; weak elsewhere.

March 30 prices on good grade of meats: Beef, $15.50-$17.50; veal, $17-$20; lamb, $18-$22; mutton, $12-$16; light pork loins, $24-$27; heavy loins, $18-$22.

Wanted to buy both your fat and stock hogs. O'Bannon and Neuswanger. Phone 71. 18tf

TWANG, TWANG

Rastus from Boston was trying to impress his southern cousin with the superior speed of northern trains.

"When dat ole Montreal express gets a hummin', Mose, he asseverated solemnly, 'de telegraph posts looks like slats on a chicken fence.'"

"Humpf!" sniffed Mose. "When de Southern express steps out fo' Noo Orleans, it nacherally makes de mile-posts look closer'n strings on a banjo."—American Legion Weekly.
